THE LIFE & TIMES OF BUILDING 2'S HELEN

Helen was born in Penns Grove, New Jersey, and has one older brother, who is 10 years her senior and served in the military. She grew up in Swedesboro, NJ, near her grandfather's farm, where she spent much of her childhood helping with tasks like growing asparagus and tomatoes. She fondly recalls her farm life, even remembering the days of using outhouses.

During her middle school years, her family relocated to St. Petersburg, Florida, where Helen embraced the beach lifestyle. Unfortunately, she battled encephalitis and missed a year of school. After graduating high school, Helen began working in a jewelry store and, at the age of 19, met her husband, Lee, on a blind date. At the time, Lee was attending Georgia Tech, and after finishing college, he went on to work for a phone company. During a visit to Blairsville, Georgia, Lee fell in love with the town, and the couple made the decision to move there after his retirement.

Helen and Lee have two children, a son and a daughter, both of whom now live in Blairsville. Helen enjoys drawing, spending time at the beach, visiting coffee shops, and has a fondness for roller skating.

Helen considers her greatest accomplishment to be the love she shares with others. Her goal is to spread joy and help people enjoy life to the fullest. She moved to Stonehenge two months ago and has deeply appreciated the care and support provided by the caregivers and staff.

Helen's Advice:
"Stay Happy and Laugh"
